True Joy

This is the true joy in life, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; the being thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrap heap; the being a force of Nature instead of a feverish little clod of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy.

George Bernard Shaw

Happiness

Happiness comes of the capacity to feel deeply, to enjoy simply, to think freely, to risk life, to be needed.

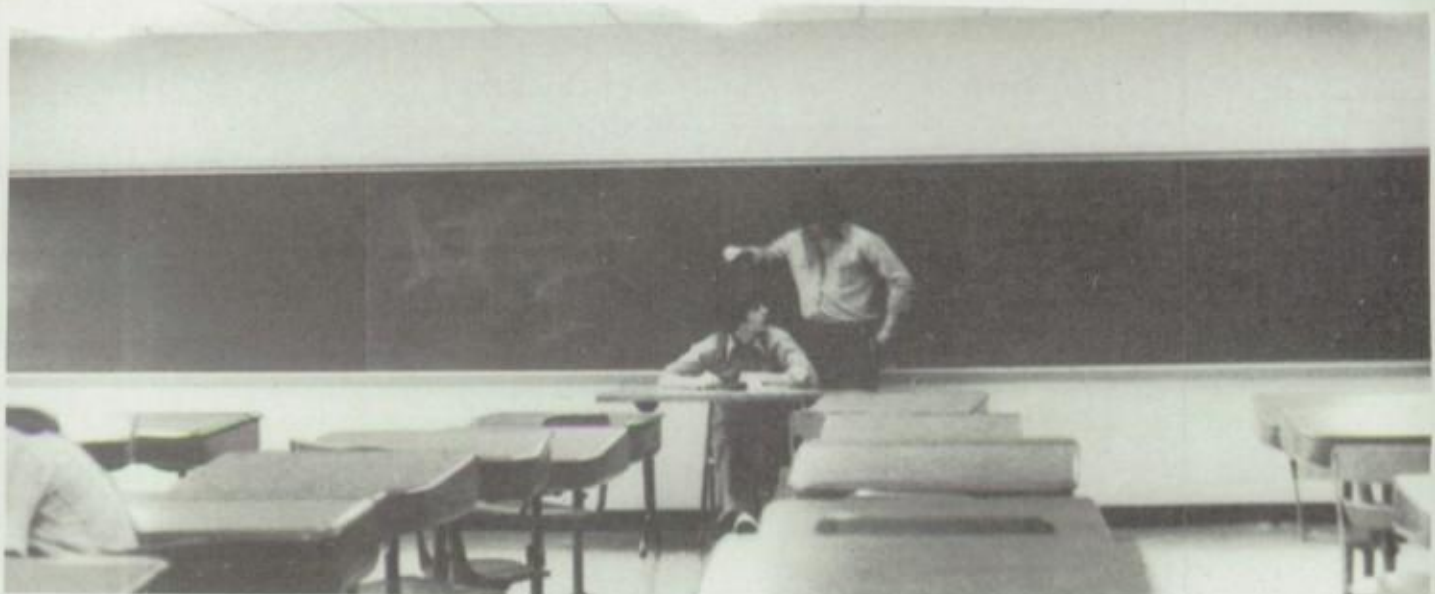

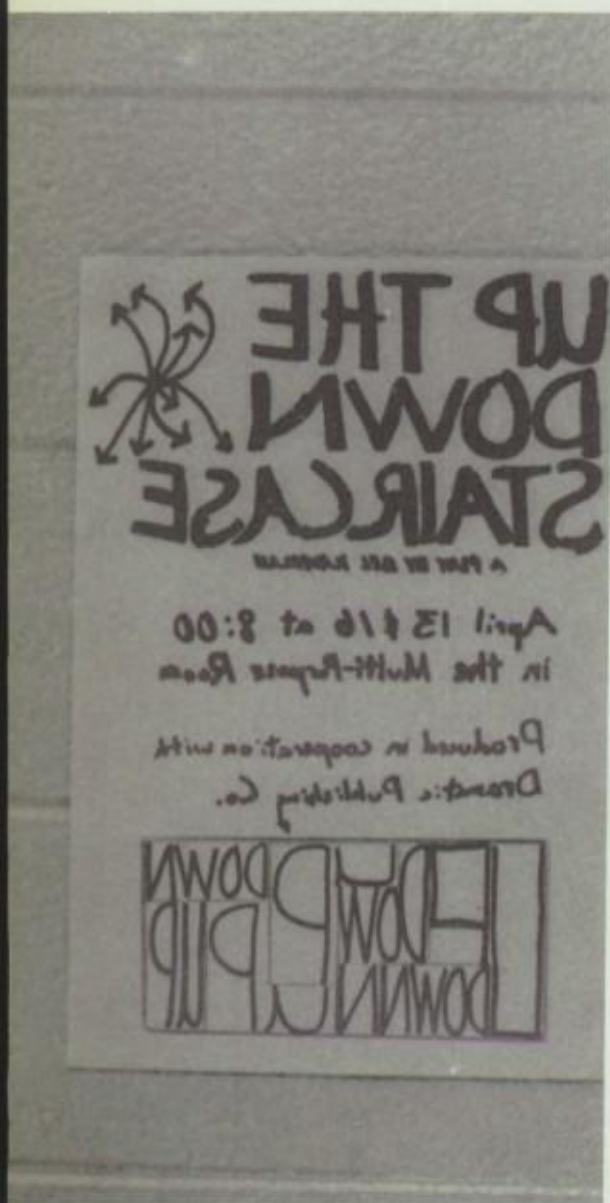

Storm Jameson

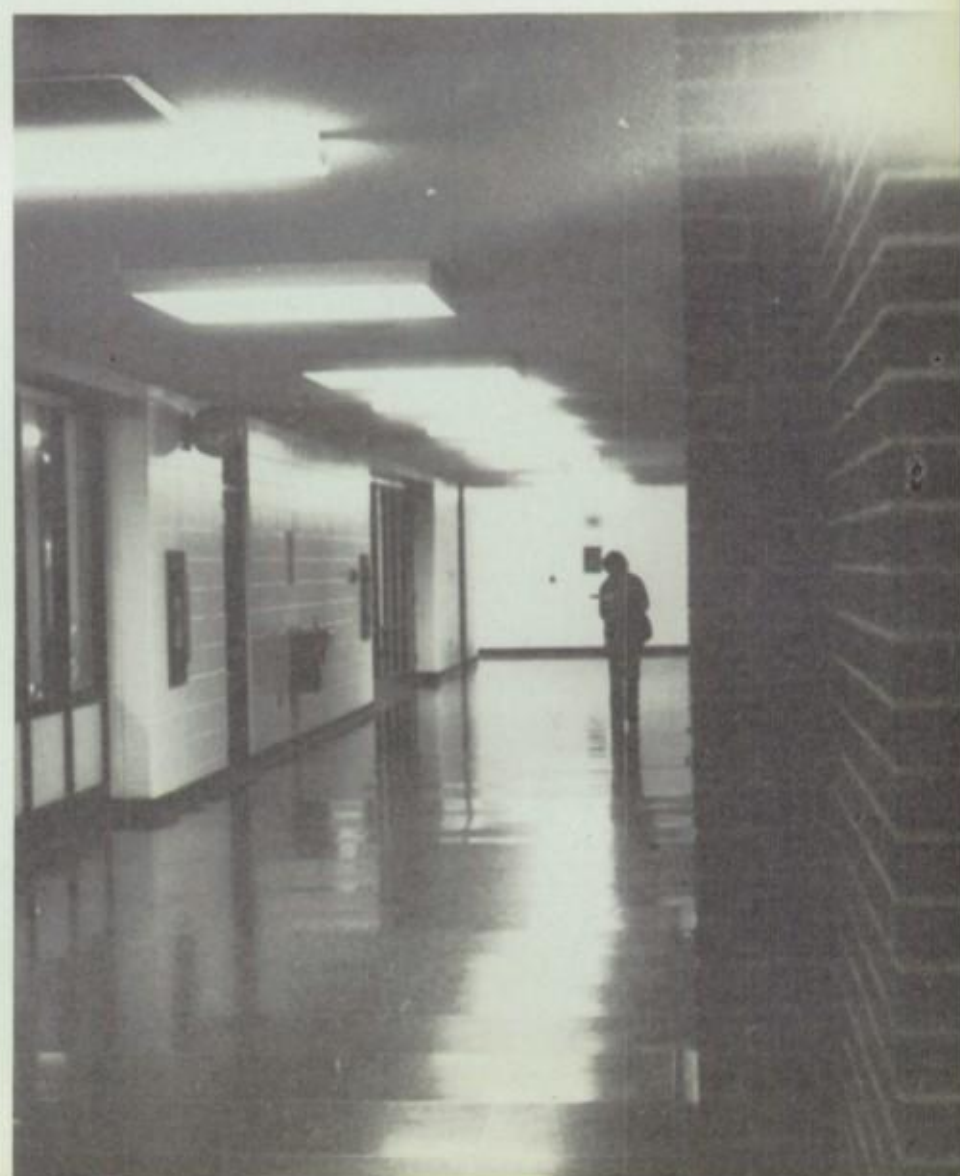

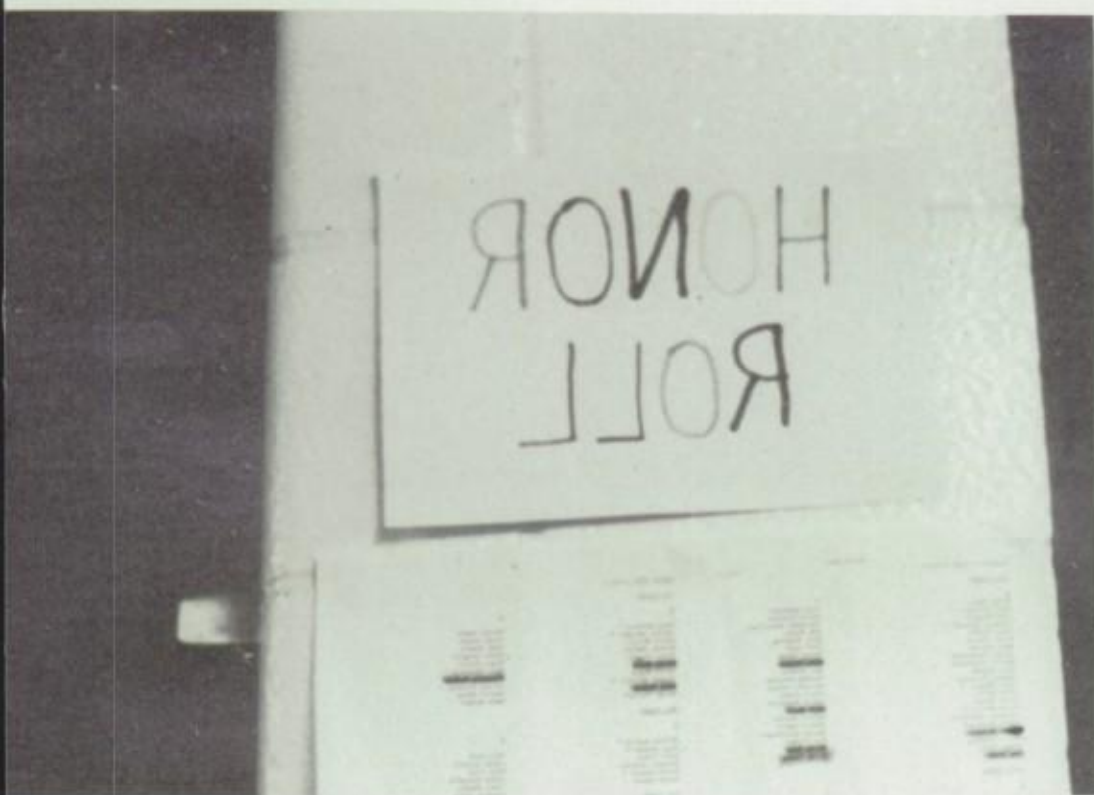

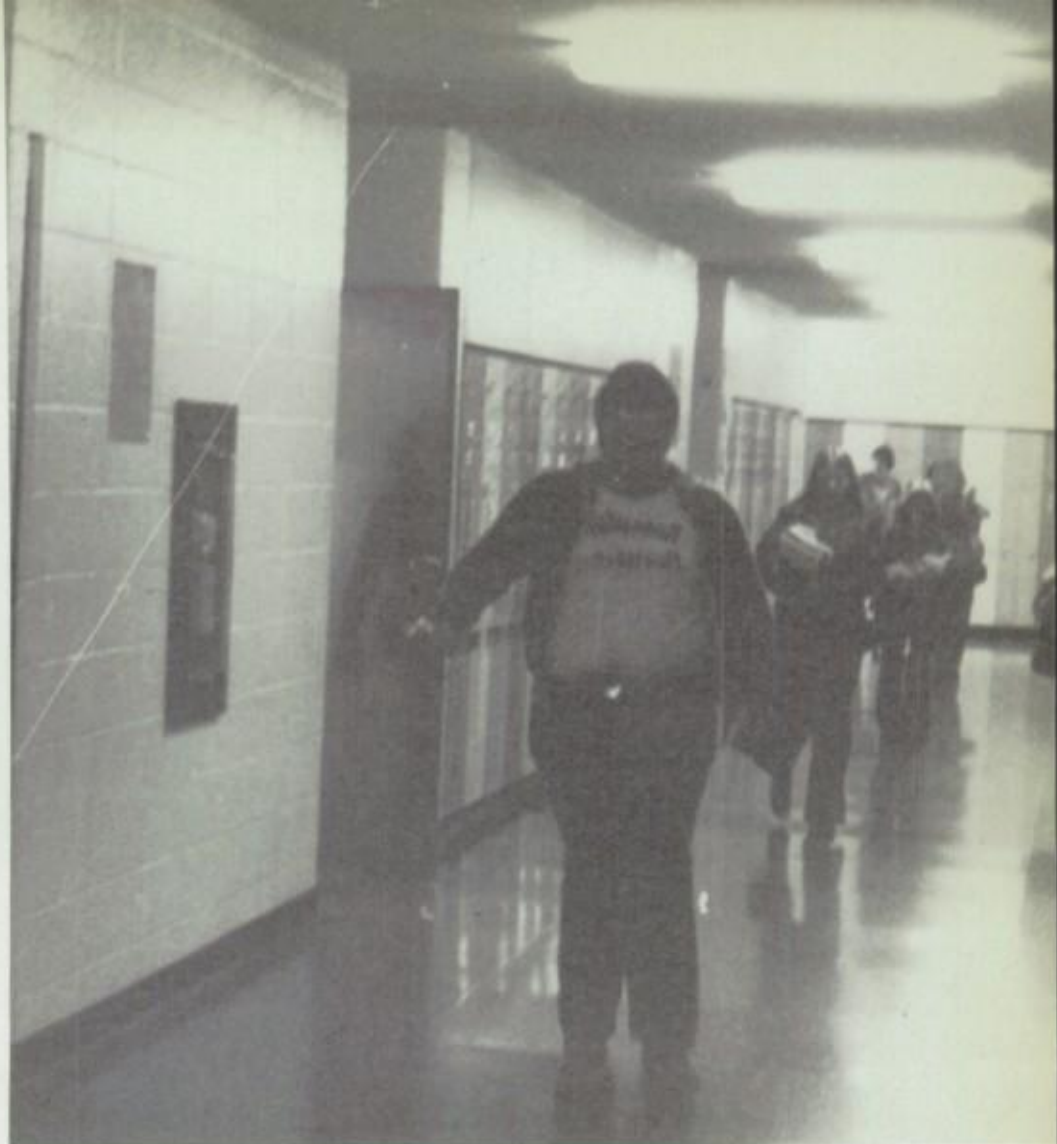

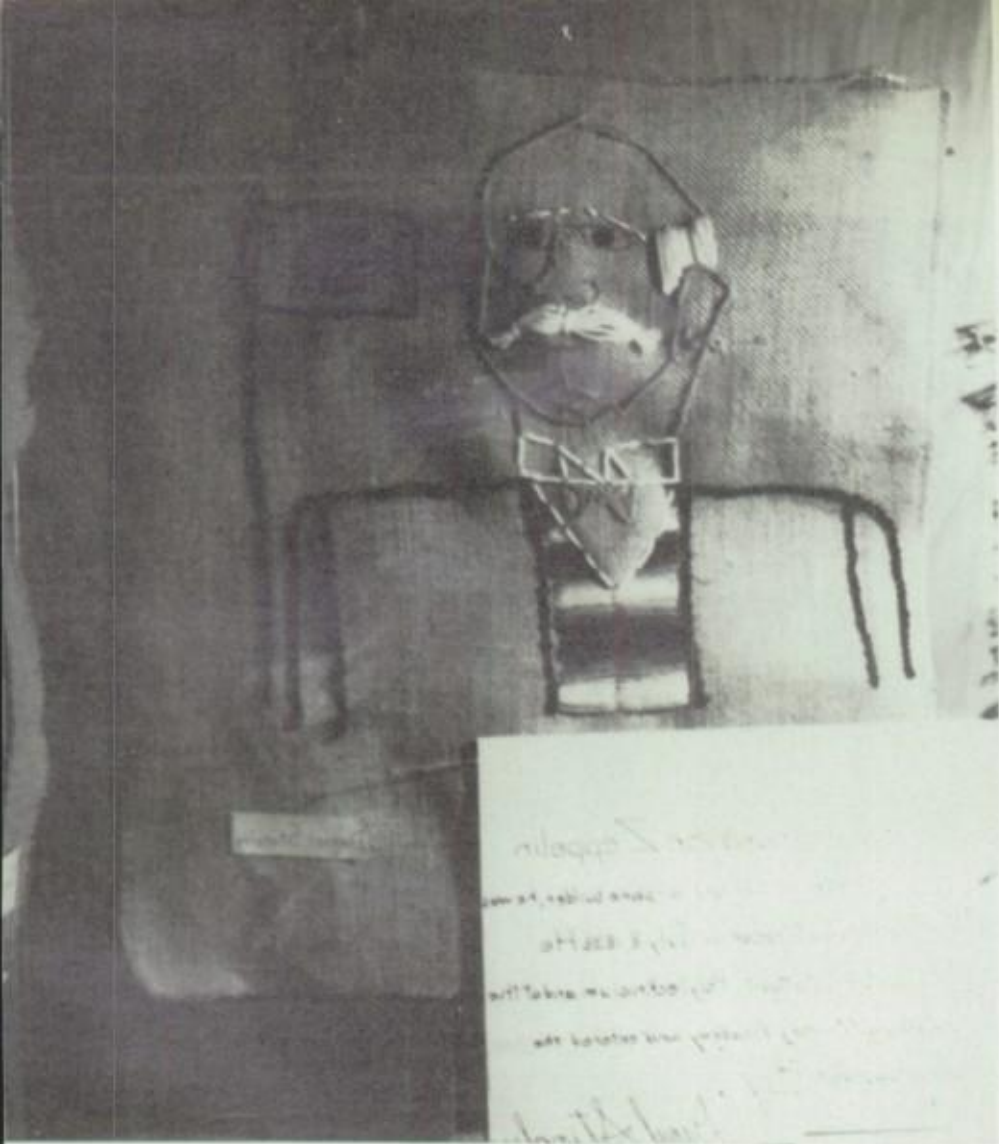

When Fall Arrives

Oh, Somehow when the oaks
turn red,
And yellow's mixed with brown,
When from the shrubs, all
looking dead,
The leaves come drifting
down,
I'm led to seek a marsh expanse
Where hollow reed abounds,
Where cattails firmly take their stance
O'er marshy muskrat
mounds.
To me the touch and smell
of fall Brings quietness of soul.
My cares? I drop them one and all
For peace of mind—
my goal.

by Elizabeth Wakefield

Spring

It isn't the sun and it isn't the showers,
It isn't the birds and it isn't the flowers,
It isn't the rivers that run
to the sea,
It's leaving off snow boots that Spring means to me.

It isn't the dew, and it isn't the breeze,
It isn't the little green
leaves on the trees,
It isn't the woodpecker's
eager tap! tap!
It's not wearing mitten and sweater and cap.

It isn't the honey bees out of their hives,
It isn't the lake where the
pickerel dives,
It isn't the songs that the orioles sing,
It's putting on sneakers,
that makes me love Spring.

by Dorothy Dale

Winter

Bare old trees in silhouette
Against a steel-gray sky;
Crisp north wind whispering
In stately pines near by;
Jeweled frosted necklaces
Draped on fir trees low;
Chickadees and juncos Playing hide and seek below;
Sheer ice ledges bordering
Streams meandering in meadows;
Billowy drifts of snow made ethereal
By evening's lengthening shadows—
These are beauties that I find
In a wonderland I scan,
And I am deeply grateful
God included winter in His plan.

by Miriam B. Nolt

Summer Sounds

What glorious sounds the summer shares
With all, e'en those with earthly cares:
The robin's chirp from dawn
to dark,
The crickets' hum in lawn
and park;
The buzzing of the bumblebee,
The sound of locusts in the tree
It was go good of God in love
To give us sounds to hear above
The din of wheels on country roads,
And buses stopping with their loads.

Hannes Enjoys Living in Rossville

Hannes and Harriet Jones clown around while Hannes is visiting them.

Kris and Hannes are having a snack at the Jones'.

Hannes Stechmann, our exchange student from Germany, is enjoying his visit to Rossville. He is living with the Tucciarelli's and has found a compatible "brother" in Matt. Hannes has made many friends while attending school here, and they have introduced him to many new things. His favorite, a chocolate milkshake!

Hannes has his serious moments while doing his homework.

Hannes' "brother" dressed up for the "Hornet power."

A souvenir from RHS along with pictures of Hannes' parents.

Hannes' "brother" shows his enthusiastic responses at a baseball game.

Hannes is proud to be a Rossville Hornet!

The Tucciarelli charm has rubbed off on Hannes as you can see.

Secretaries And Office Helpers

Our administration is growing and changing with each new school year. The elementary has added two new faces to our staff; Mr. Steve Sprunger, principal and Mrs. Sharon McGill, secretary to Mr. Sprunger. The high school staff remains the same. With the help of the high school office, elementary office and superintendents, our school functions with efficiency and cooperation.

Mrs. McGill, the new elementary secretary, has many jobs.

Our guidance counselor, Mrs. Bowyer, doubles her duties by helping in the office with attendance and other jobs.

Mrs. Crane, Mary Lou to most R.H.S. students, has many responsibilities as secretary to the principal.

Mrs. Sharp has taken a big step from elementary help to the secretary for the superintendent.

Administration: The Power Behind R.H.S.

Mr. Henze, our fearless leader at Rossville High, works for understanding among all people concerned with the High School.

Mr. Sprunger has taken the responsibility of elementary principal.

Our superintendent, Mr. Egly, coordinates the community and school.

School board members Ross Milner, Bill Yoder, and Roger Frey make many important decisions at RCSD.

Bus Drivers Get C.B.'s

Bus drivers wait as the kids clamor aboard for the ride home.

Breaker, Breaker, good buddy, this is Bus No. 1 calling Bus No. 10. You got your ears on?

A worker installs a C.B. radio.

The Most Dignified Group At R.H.S.

Mr. Miller patronizes the Hornets on faculty dress down day.

Are these teachers really as dignified as they look to us? I wonder. For one reason, I heard that Mrs. Hoff wore Gary McCarty's overalls on faculty dress down day. Also we've been told that Mrs. Proudfit's secret desire is to wear her goggles all the time. These are just a few things we have heard ... what do you think?

Mrs. Proudfit is surprised when someone snaps her picture on dress down day.

Rossville's liberated teachers?? on faculty dress down day.

Mrs. Flanningam, our typing teacher, takes a moment to pose for the camera.

The sophomores had a successful Fall Festival this year. They broke the previous record by a small amount. Among the booths sponsored by the sophomore class were: the basketball raffle, coke stand, the tea room, and the cake walk. The sophomore class netted $1,300 in profits. They started out on the slow side, but the sophomores were rewarded in the end.

Many people at the Fall Festival watch for the reactions of the ones lucky enough to win!

Everyone put together their talents to present "Variety '76." There were laughing contests, jugglers, firemen, T.P.W.C. (toilet paper wrapping contest) and Beauty Queens. Everyone who went will willingly agree it was a roaring success.

High School Band

The band is getting ready to march in the Christmas parade.

Cindy Stanley leads the band downfield.

The Rossville High School Band started off the year with a combination of hard work and cold weather while marching in the marching contest, Veterans Day Parade, and the Christmas Parade.

But that's not all they did. Along with playing at every home basketball game, they had a Christmas Concert, a Mid-Winter Band Concert, and the Spring Concert. For the second year, the band had a banquet to give awards to the most outstanding Band members. Jackets are given to 2 year band members. The band is improving every year.

Sunshine Society is giving a little girl an opportunity to live a normal life. They are supporting Marie-Yveline Semexant. She is able to attend school even though her family is poverty stricken. She is eleven years old and lives in Haiti. Besides this the SSS sponsored parties for the grade school, needy baskets, cheer plates, Daddy Date Night, Ideal Ladies, Morp, and a Heart Fund at Milner's.

FHA and SSS

Work Together

Again this year FHA sent gifts to physically disabled children. The two organizations are very close together. So FHA helped with SSS parties, needy baskets and cheer plates. But the prominent project was the coat check at basketball games.

Sponsors Convos ...

Bill Simpson, twice World Champion of the trampoline, showed us some of the things not to do!

... And Has A New Sponsor

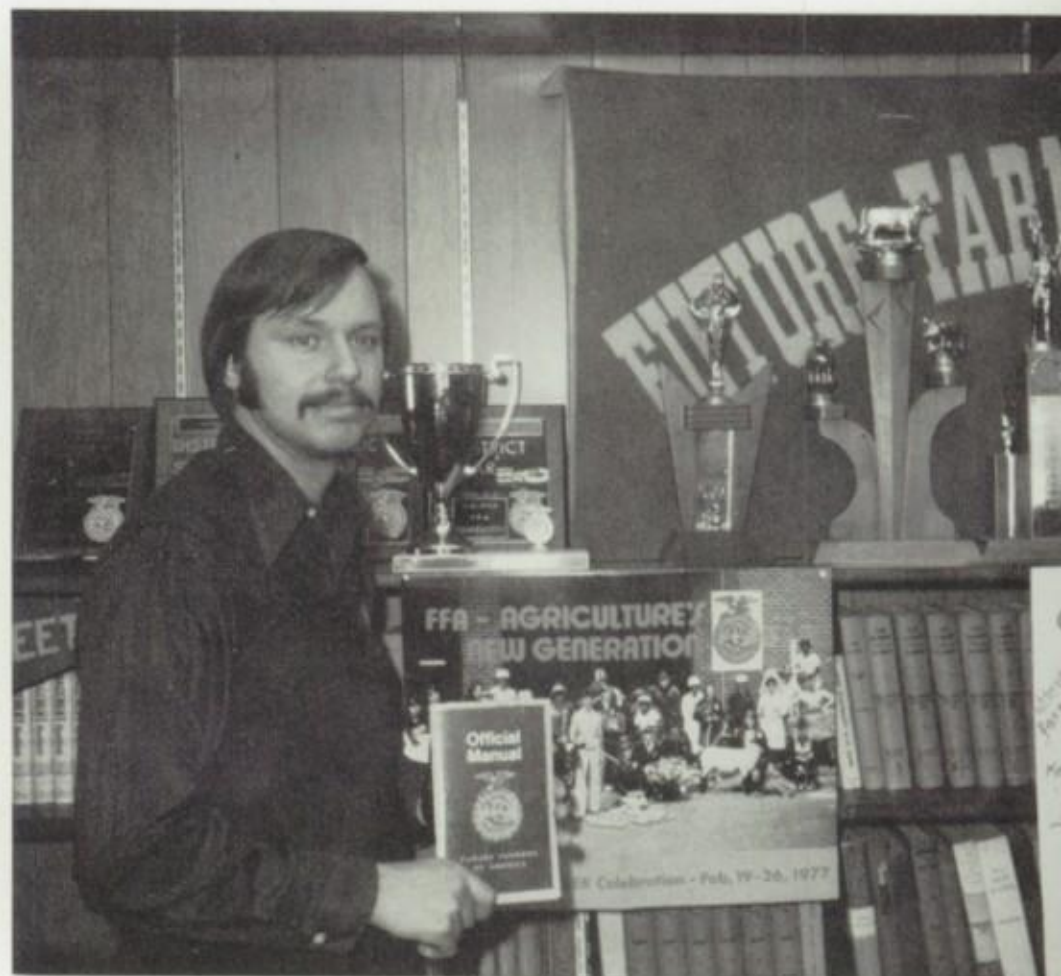

Besides sponsoring it's usual three convocations, dances, and the Homecoming, Student Council this year concentrated on bettering communication between the students and the administration. Midway through the year, they started regular meetings with Mr. Henze in order to further this aim and a new sponsor, Mr. Dawson, contributed more good advice. As a result, this year's Student Council was the most effective yet!

FFA recognizes outstanding members in Steve Jones for winning the State FFA Public Speaking Contest and Phil Burkle for winning the State FFA Freshman Public Speaking Contest. Among this year's activities were: in September and October, the popcorn sales; in November, the annual Steak Fry and the National Convention; and in December, the Crops Contest and Foundation drives. In the Crops Contest they placed 2nd and in the Regional Public Speaking Contest Steve Jones placed 2nd.

Practice, Practice, and More Practice!

Clark is practicing his humorous speech, "God's Favorite."

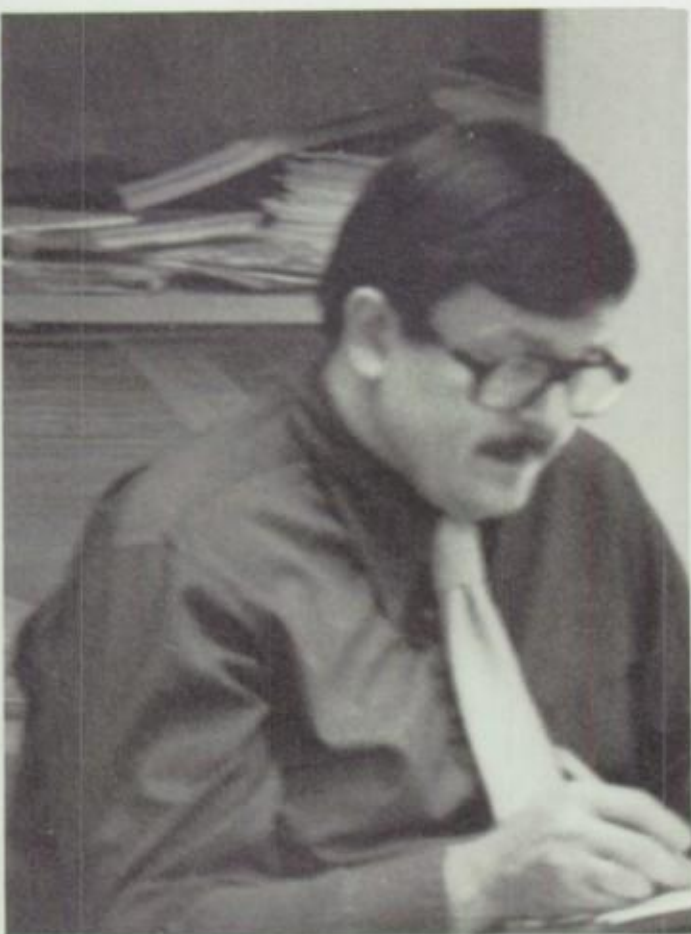

2nd in Sectional

Speech Team is divided into several categories including: Poetry, Extemporaneous Speaking, Oratorical Interpretation, Drama, Humorous, Broadcasting, and Impromptu. Each person has their own program in their division that they present at each meet. They entered 9 meets, 2 of which were canceled because of bad weather. They received several firsts and their biggest victory came at the Twin Lakes meet, Dec. 11 when they beat Jeff by 12 points. The home meet was held Jan. 8 with Rossville placing first with 75 points over North Central with 25 points.

Concessions at Jr. High, Freshmen and girls games are their way of making money. They sold pie at the home speech meet and sponsored a booth at the Fall Festival.

It takes true devotion to be on a bus at 6:15 in the morning when it's freezing cold and we ride to a school that we don't know our way around and get up and speak in front of someone we've never seen before. It's worth it when you get to go up for a ribbon and set the sweepstakes trophy in the Speech Team trophy case. Mr. Eiler is tremendously pleased with the performance of everyone on the team.

Mr. Eiler evaluates speech team members after each practice.

The French Club attended a French folksinging concert, given by Robert Pequette in Fort Wayne, November 10. They also sponsored two dances after the basketball games. They attended a French Festival at Harrison High School in February, and they had a very successful booth at the Fall Festival, from which they made enough money to go out to eat at Chez Renee' in Indianapolis in the spring.

Spanish Club Attends Boston Flamenco Ballet

On November 8 the Spanish Club went on a field trip to see a performance of the Boston Flamenco Ballet at John Marshall H.S. in Indianapolis. On December 10 they had a Christmas party at Teresa Bushman's house, who was named as an outstanding member of Spanish Club. At the Fall Festival they had posters, patches, and iron-ons.

LARS Changes

The LARS staff's activities throughout the year include ad sales in the fall, which bring in a large portion of the organization's funds for financing the yearbook, and subscriptions during the middle part of the school year. LARS staff members and sponsor Miss Melady cover all the school activities and personalities throughout the year. We are the "school historians and reporters."

LARS staff members work during A-period and after school to meet deadlines.

"HIGH SPOT" ALIAS "THE STING"

"The High Spot" is now "The Sting." It was changed by popular vote of the student body. The Sting Staff participated in many activities during the school year such as the Indiana High School Press Association Conference at Franklin College in October; Mrs. Hoff, Ava Stoops, Steve Melton, and Gary McCarty attended. Also, a change in activities for the Sting; 1976-77 was the first year they had sold subscriptions for the school paper. In February they also sold "Valentine" space in their issue for anyone that wanted to show someone they cared. This was a success with the entire student body.

Chess Club has been setting goals for next year. They plan to purchase chess clocks and learn the state rules for tournament play so that they can participate in those held at high schools throughout the state. Their play-offs were in April. Last year's winners were, first Rich Butler, and second Mark Seest.

Chess Club members concentrate on their game.

NHS Grows Larger

The National Honor Society had six inductees this year, all of whom had a grade average of 3.5 or better. They were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and patriotism. The induction was held on the evening of March 6, 1977, with all interested students, parents, and faculty attending.

Building And Tradesmen ...

During the course of the school year the Building and Trades Class, instructed by Les Lassiter, started with only a lot in Sunset Meadows. At the end of the year, they have a complete house. This year the class did something that they had never done before, they laid all of the bricks for the outside of the house, and an all brick fireplace in the family room. Also, for the first time, the class did all of the drywall work on the interior of the house.

Sprints, Fundamental Drills, Listening to the coach Complain, and a lot of sweat go into the making of a successful basketball team. The year's varsity suffered through a disappointing 9-12 record but they learned how to cooperate with one another. Injuries played an important part as Craig Hufford and Kris Jones suffered early season handicaps. Underclassman earned a lot of playing time that makes the future look bright. High point of the year came in the Sectional against Frankfort when we had a chance to win until there was a bomb scare.

This year's B-team finished 4-14. The team was rather short with the tallest player being Jeff Miller at six feet. The competition was usually bigger and stronger but the team fought hard and never gave up. It was hard to find a winning combination as there were some boys splitting time between B-team and Varsity. Six freshmen got a lot of B-team playing time, and we expect big things from these players in the future.

This year's team had its ups and downs. Snow days prevented the girls from having the practices they wanted. Because of all the snow, several games were postponed, making their schedule awkward. Despite all setbacks they came through winning their first sectional game.

This year our girl athletes, under the direction of Ms. Carter, have had a very good year. They suffered many defeats but their attitudes stayed on top at all times. They worked hard at practices and their victories were well deserved. If the girls continue to have such good attitudes it won't be to long until they'll have an all winning season.

The seventh grade A team ended their season with a 9-3 record. They played smart ball and were a good coachable team. The eighth grade team ended with a 8-5 record. This team was a physical team and they worked hard all year.

The freshmen team record was 6-8. These boys have improved greatly in the past years and gave first year coach Dawson a good year and a feeling of real achievement.

Lack of experience and lack of numbers were the problems with this year's Varsity track team as only six lettermen returned and only fourteen boys ran. The team had a record of 1-5 with two meets cancelled due to bad weather. John Anderson set a new school record in the discus and Craig Hufford went to the regional in the High Jump.

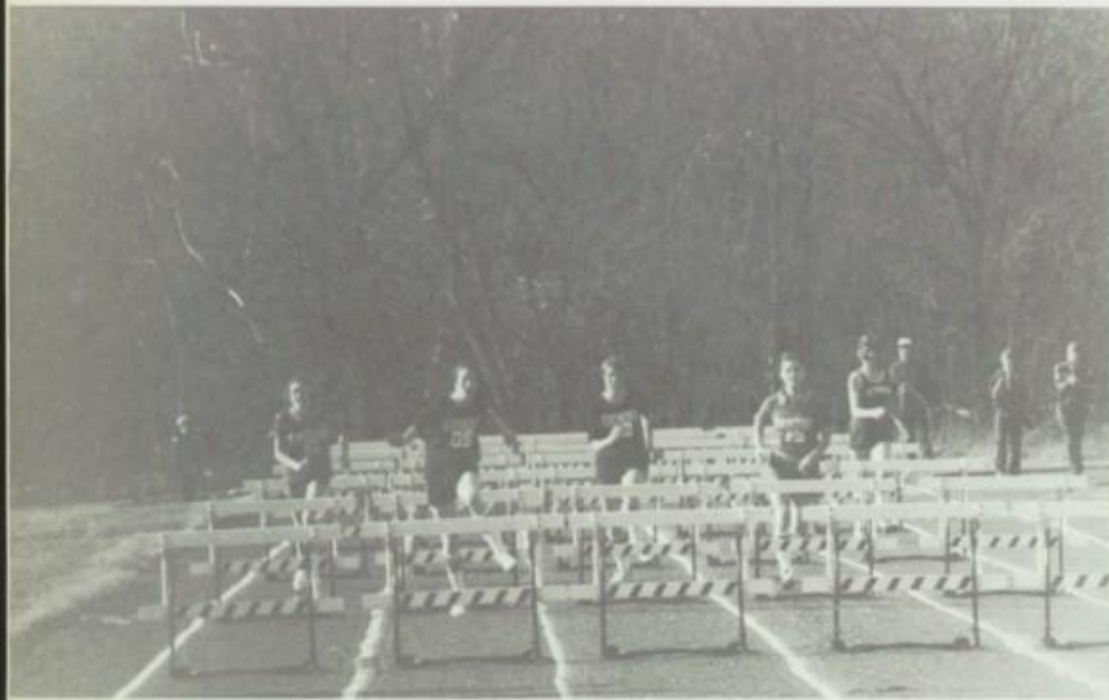

Junior High Track

Junior High track also had a problem with numbers, and they didn't participate in very many meets. However, they gained much needed experience for the future.

HORNET AWARD

The multi-purpose room was the setting for the awards banquet March 16, 1977. Pep Block worked many hard hours to decorate for the ceremony. This year included with outstanding basketball players outstanding cheerleaders and pep club members were recognized.

The banquet ended when Mr. Jones, our coach for the last thirteen years, announced that he was resigning from his position as head coach at Rossville High. Everyone left the banquet with a feeling of great loss.

Seniors Journey To Washington

The Senior class of '77 decided to change things once more. This year's Senior class flew to Washington, spent two nights and three day's of endless sight seeing, then flew back home. There were so many things to see that they could have spent a much longer time there. However, they all returned happily for their big day on Sunday.

These seniors are to represent Rossville at Washington.

Up The Down

The cast awaits the curtain opening, nervously.

This year's play wasn't straight comedy, but more of a mixture of comedy and drama. We found that the play appealed especially to teachers, but was enjoyable to everyone. Calvin Coolidge High, as in every school, had it's array of characters. "Miss Barrett"—Lisa Brovont, played the part of a new teacher ready to face class with assurance. However, in the class with Joe Ferone, alias Mike Fickle; southern belle, Julie Stevenson; and the slightly strange "Rusty" or Dennis Meador; Miss Barrett found she had a lot to learn. There were several hours of hard work put into the play, but every minute was worth it.

Honor's Day Recognizes the Best

Mark Gaylor received an award for photographer of the LARS staff.

Ann Mohler was awarded in literary works for poetry.

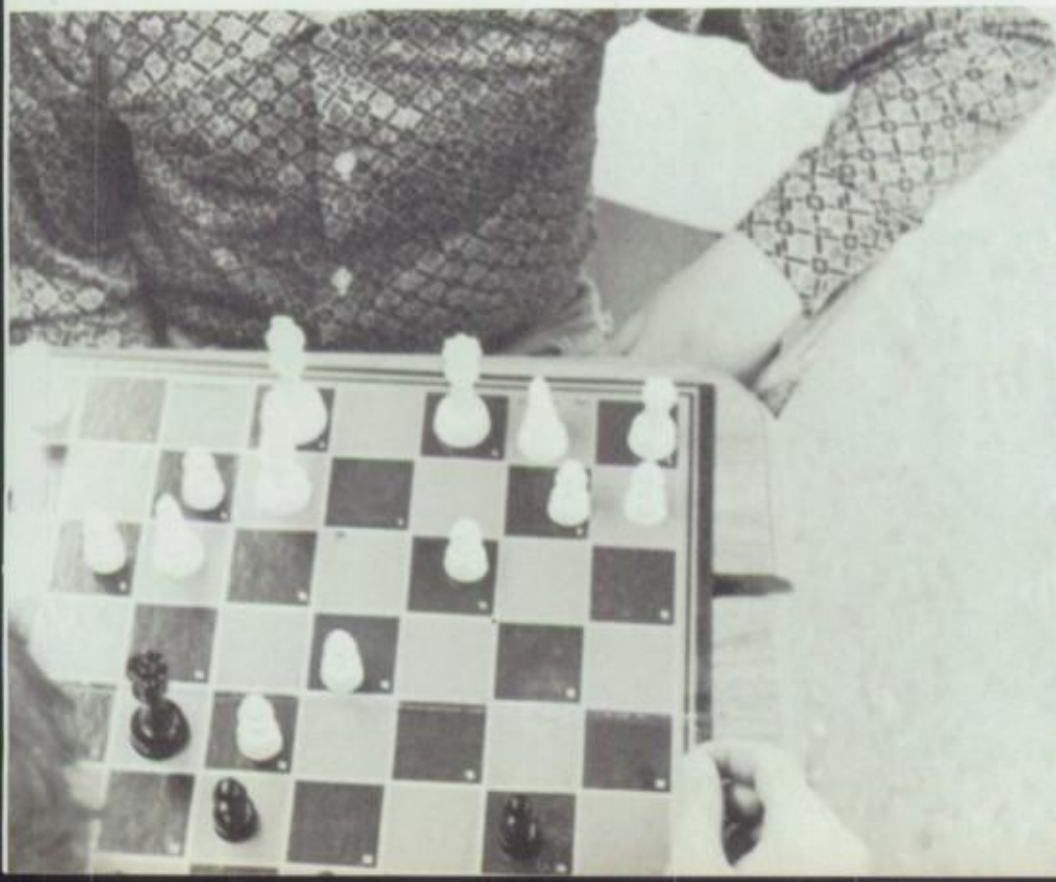

Richard Butler and Sue Gochenour were among many awarded for Home Economics.

Mike Fickle was nominated as best actor, best actress was Lisa Brovont.

Jenny Rockwood and Mitch Shively were two members of the senior class to receive awards for NHS.

Graduates of Seniors still can't get the hang of using silverware!

The pessimist sees the difficulty in every opportunity; the optimist,
the opportunity in every difficulty.
L.P. Jacks

I shall be telling this with a sigh,
Somewhere ages and ages hence;
Two roads diverged in a wood,
and,
I took the one less traveled by;
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

The Class of '77

The class couldn't be this crowded!

We should all be concerned about the future because we will have to spend the rest of our life there.

Charles F. Lettering

I held a moment in my hand,
Brilliant as a star,
Fragile as a flower,
A shiny sliver out of one hour. I dropped it carelessly, O God! I knew not I held opportunity!

Hazel Lee

SUMMER

Hornet Grand-

Mark Walker, Greg Barnard, Ken Harris, Steve McCarty, Tom Marshall, David Brower, Gary McCarty, Matt Tucciarelli, and coach Mike Reynolds.

Matt winds up for a strike.

Phil awaits a throw while a runner slides into base.

Slammers

"Put your weight on that back foot son," yells Mr. Leighty as Phil is up to bat.

Stealing a base takes skill, as you can see as Jeff Miller looks to see if the ball will beat him to base.

Another out for the team as a quick throw is received on first, by Phil Leighty.

The Hornets have another man on base as Brad Golden makes a hit.

Thinking out the strategy of the game is new baseball coach Mike Reynolds.

If I'd Live to be a hundred,
The years would be too few,
To do the kindly things for folks
That I should like to do.

But I hope that I'll be able,
In a friendly sort of way,
To let them know I love them,
And that none will ever say,
That I caused them heartaches,
Or grief when I was here,
Because I never meant to—
I count friends much too dear.

Helen Hattendorf

If you wish friends then friendly be,
Just find a smile and try it.
If you seek truth then truthful be,
You know you cannot buy it.
Happiness will come to you
When you have time to give it.
Life will mean much more to you,
If you will truly live it.

Everett Wentworth Hill

This past year has been a struggle to make delayed deadlines, frantic searches for pictures, and extra days spent after school was out to finish up the book. This year the staffers had a lot of hard work and catching up to do due to the bad weather. Our apologies go to all the new teachers, night janitors, and Ms. Jones for missing them because of cancelled picture schedules. I would like to give an extra special thanks to Miss Melady, a great sponsor, for putting up with our delayed deadlines and also to Mr. Baumer for all the pictures that were taken for us throughout the year. Lars staffers, congratulations on the completion of the 1977 yearbook!

Vicki
